

The diagram illustrates a web browser window with a gray header bar containing the text "Mozilla". Below the header is a white address bar with the URL "http://moqups.com". A navigation menu is positioned below the address bar, featuring five buttons: "Home", "Gallery", "About us", "Log in", and "Register". The main content area is a large gray rectangle. At the top of this area is the word "text". Below it is a grid of eight gray squares, each labeled "Image", arranged in two rows of four. At the bottom of the main content area is the word "footer".
